position may be filled at the GS-6 or GS-07 grade levels. The primary difference between grade levels is the degree of supervision, the level of training and guidance provided and the complexity of assignment. A person selected at the GS-06 grade level may be progressively promoted to the full performance level of GS-07 without further competition.

DESCRIPTION OF WORK AT THE GS-7 FULL PERFORMANCE LEVEL

This position is located in the Immediate Office of the Regional Administrator. The incumbent provides assistance to the Regional Administrator (RA), Deputy Regional Administrator (DRA) and Executive Assistants in tasks related to budget, facilities, personnel, purchasing, and various other administrative functions. Monitors the office budget (including regional support account funding and awards). Works with Budget Office staff to provide budget status information, submit requests or changes, and similar activities. Prepares SF-52s for requested personnel actions. Attaches proper documentation and assigns account and tracking numbers. Obtains required signatures, retains file copies, and tracks status. Coordinates RA/DRA orientation meetings with new employees. Acts as primary contact in ORA for furniture, equipment, and telephone services. Acquires equipment and services using internal administrative and procurement procedures. Ensures adequate office supplies are maintained in the office. Maintains ORA's controlled correspondence system. Tracks status of pending or overdue correspondence generated by Headquarters, and requests extensions when necessary. Coordinates with divisions/office managers to ensure due dates are met. Composes correspondence on own initiative in accordance with correspondence guidelines and based on a knowledge of RA/DRA's view and desires. Utilizes word processing and graphic software to produce written communications, briefing materials, and visual presentations of program activities using advanced graphic software. Provides assistance in the development of talking points and speeches. Receives visitors and redirects telephone calls to appropriate office/division. Determines nature of business and decides whether the importance of business, rank or position of visitor is such as to require the personal attention of the RA/DRA or if the caller/visitor should be referred to a more appropriate senior manager or staff. Oversees review of incoming mail; designates actions and follow-up to ensure deadlines are met. Reviews correspondence and documents prepared for RA/DRA signature and ascertains its conformance to know administrative policies and regulations. Provides assistance to the Executive Assistants in coordinating regional and national conferences, and meetings, including space, time, attendees, etc. Collects background materials in accordance with instructions and assists in preparing an agenda. Prepares executive travel itineraries and arranges transportation and hotel accommodations. Prepares and submits travel vouchers. Assumes responsibility for correct application of travel regulations before submission of travel vouchers for payment. Maintains time and attendance for the immediate office utilizing PeoplePlus software.
